

Jean Jacques Bosco is a native French speaker, high school teacher, and radio and TV journalist. He has taught French successfully to students of all levels from preschool through university level to seniors for the last 7 years. His enthusiasm and positive attitude make his classes very enjoyable.

Jean Jacques's passion is for soccer and he is very successful at teaching soccer skills to all ages, starting at age 3! He's a great soccer player and coach too!